

PARENTING SIBLINGS
PRESENTED BY: STEPHANIE AGNEW
Los Altos United Methodist Church Children's Center
January 18, 2007

- I. Your own sibling experience and how it affects the way you parent
- II. Avoiding labels and comparisons
- III. Understanding differences – Developmental and Temperamental
- IV. Parenting Individually instead of Equally
- V. Teaching Problem Solving and Conflict Resolution Skills
- VI. Fostering Positive Relationships

BIBLIOGRAPHY

Siblings Without Rivalry; How to help your children live so you can live too: Adele Faber and Elaine Mazlish, Perennial Currents 2004

Loving Each One Best; A caring and practical approach to raising siblings: Nancy Samalin, Bantam Books 1996

Beyond Sibling Rivalry; How to help your children become cooperative, caring and compassionate: Peter Goldenthal Ph.D., Owl Books 1999

Stephanie Barry Agnew, B.A. - Stephanie has an extensive background in Early Childhood Education with 20 years of teaching experience in Palo Alto area schools. She was trained at Bing Nursery School while getting her degree at Stanford and has taught all preschool age groups from Toddlers to Young Fives. She owned her own small preschool in Palo Alto for 5 years and worked as a parent educator at The Children's Health Council for 6 years where she was also the director of the Parent Education Program for 2 years. Since 2002 she has been working independently and for the Parents Place in Palo Alto as a Parent Educator and Preschool Consultant. Stephanie's specialties include young child behavior management, Kindergarten readiness, school choices and preschool teacher training and support. She teaches parenting classes, gives one session talks, leads teacher training workshops, observes children at home and at school, and offers individual parents information and support about a wide array of parenting issues.